sw, it's really been wonderful having you & town & in all my troubles. I don't. could I have done without you. you seem to know just what to say at just the right time. You've been so very much help.
You. with your beautiful brown eyes, shining like two outstanding stars, and your wonderful confasting smile, and your sweet way of saying things. Oh! how I will miss you when you leave.
But I am breaking forward to coming to see you.
even if you don't ask me. I can hardly wait to see you in your white uniform, you will have all the patients falling for you. It must be great to have such a future in front of you. Your serving your bit for your country, along with your life's ambition. It'll all sound of you.
I want to be called friendly some one like you.

Darling, you know there is no need of my wishing you luck, success & happiness, because with your beautiful way and your winning disposition you are sure to go all the way to the top. Don't stop until you do get there.
You are going into something new. Many had said to me, All the luck in the whole wide world. There are sure to be some disappointment. don't let them get you. Take them as you always have. On de chin and don't waver.

may you have a very happy and successful future, which I'm sure you will have.

(you so sweet, and I love you) Love & Love of Love.

(I had loved you in all your do)

DEDICATION

Miss Emma Fritz

To MISS EMMA FRITZ, whose loyalty to Hickory High School is unquestioned, whose friendly and helpful interest in its students has manifested itself in all phases of our school life, and whose untiring aid has helped bring honors to our school, we dedicate with deep esteem and sincere appreciation, the 1942 HICKORY LOG.

F O R E W O R D

THE Senior Class of 1942 brings you a new HICKORY LOG. We have tried in this yearbook to give a well-rounded picture of our high school life. In days and years to come, as its pages revive fond memories of your years at Hickory High, we of the staff sincerely hope that you will treasure this LOG — not presented as a great literary product, but simply as a picture and a record of your beautiful and happy years at Hickory High.

FACULTY SNAPS

Winnie Sue, It has been pleasant to know a senior who is so co-operative. Sue enjoyed your little brother lots this year too.

Best wishes
Ethel Starnes

Needless to say that I have enjoyed having you in Biology. You have been all that I could expect in attitude and accomplishment.

Sincerely,
Ed Scarborough

After the associations of three years it is not pleasant to think that it is all over - You have been a very diligent, good little student. I can depend upon your cooperation and sympathy at all times.

Love,
Lois L. Dixon

Slow and unsteady, that's me.

I'm glad to have known you

CLASS HISTORY

As freshmen, we entered upon some of the happiest years of our lives — the years spent here at Hickory High School. To most of us, Hickory High seemed very big and a little terrifying — at first. After the novelty and excitement of registration, we gradually settled into the routine of classes and studies and progressed steadily.

We began to realize a little more our place in the life of our High School and to use better our study halls and classroom instruction in our sophomore year.

Wider horizons opened for us as juniors. For the first time, we became part of the intellectual and cultural realms of our school. Members of our class led in athletics, in public speaking, in various clubs. Harder lessons were taken in stride. An outstanding class was preparing to assume its responsibility of leadership the next year. The climax of our junior year was, of course, our nautically-styled Junior-Senior Dance.

This year, as seniors, we have carried on our tradition of leadership. Climaxing their high school careers, seniors have led in athletics, in dramatics, in public speaking, in music (Band and Glee Club), and in every club and organization of our school. The Twig was far above its usual high standard and the LOG is the best ever, containing many new features. The Senior Class this year also instituted a new school event — the annual Homecoming parade and selection of Sponsors.

A distinguished class has completed its high school career, leaving its imprint on the traditions of Hickory High. Four happy years have sunk into Time's infinite sea. But we, the Senior Class of 1942, leave behind us this pledge: Whate'er may come in future years, nothing will ever lessen our devotion to Hickory High School or to its faculty.

*Dearest Winnie, Winnie we've been in school together for ages, haven't we? During what time I have found you to be one of the best all round girls
 I've ever known.
 With your pleasing personality and friendliness I'm sure you always be on top. I've

SENIOR PROPHECY

Opening night! An expectant hush settles over the audience. Master of Ceremonies Cole Stanley steps forward with a genial smile and beamingly addresses the assemblage:

"Good evening, Ladies and Gentlemen! As you all know, we are about to witness the dedication of this magnificent building—the Hickory Civic Center. As a part of the program for tonight, an opera which I am sure will live forever—'Regina,' written by the world famous composer and violinist, Dewey Owens—will be presented. Already the orchestra have taken their places, although they have not yet begun the overture. Tonight the orchestra will be conducted by Robert E. Cline in the absence of the usual maestro, Mr. Floyd Huffman of the Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Cline, who will also serve as piano soloist, is generally accorded first place among American pianists. Miss Modean McNeely will replace him for the orchestral number. In the title role of the opera will be Miss Jean Jones, the Metropolitan prima donna; opposite her, Glenn Miller, promising young tenor. In the cast, featured soloists are Helen Crosby, Frances Preslar, Barbara Flowers, and Helen Troutman. Members of the opera's novel all-girl chorus are: Jacqueline Bolch, Mary Bright, Doris Dellinger, Betty Anne Hickman, Doris Hoke, Bernice Kiziah, Juanita Price, Mary Elizabeth Clay, Maenell Cline, Kathleen Dellinger, and Betty Hand. The costumes worn by the cast were designed by Helen Havnaer; the scenery was designed by Louise Hoke and Lucille Lockhart. Stage managers are Billy Dellinger and Elbert McCray. The cast was directed by Mildred Vestal and Margaret Weaver.

The tuning up of the orchestra heralds the overture. "Among the members of the famous orchestra—the Hickory Philharmonic—we salute the following: Elaine Dunivent, clarinet; Elsie Ruth Hall, baritone; Anna Sue Hammond, flute; Louise Miller, glockenspiel; Dorothy Shell, saxophone; Charles Sigmon, drums; Pinkie Wyant, oboe; Henry Shook, bass; Cathleen Campbell, drums; and Edward T. Ward, drums. During the minutes remaining before curtain time, Ladies and Gentlemen, may I give you some interesting information about our Civic Center. It was constructed by the Kemp Honeycutt Company, Keith Abee, George Arndt, and James Brannock being the construction engineers, on a lovely tract of land purchased from Charles Penland and Robert Bridgeman, Realtors. The plans were drawn by the Earl Duncan Architectural Company and made into workable blueprints by a board of that company's architects, including Eubert Bowman, Fred Huggins, and Tom Callanan. The entire interior decoration was designed and executed by Miss Margaret Bowman, noted interior decorator. Robert Smith painted the murals which depict the growth of Hickory and which are based on material and suggestions of Miss Annerl Bivens, the poetess, and Miss Mary Ledford, the authoress. Companies instrumental in its construction include: the Glenn Arney Stone Company, which furnished the granite for the facade; the Robert Frye Glass Company, the R. A. Bost Lumber Company, and the Alan Thompson Company, electrical Engineers.

"And now I'd like to recognize some of the civic and business leaders of Hickory who are present. Of course, the municipal government is well represented. I see Mayor John Stroupe, Jr., Fire Chief Milton Westmoreland, Police Chief A. F. Sigmon, Jr., and Editor William F. Coffey of the Hickory Daily Record, accompanied by most of his staff: Marjorie Fee, Society Editor; Donald Bradham, Sports Editor; and Jenoise Ellis, Shirley Hallman, Elmer Huffman, and Frances Pope, reporters.

"Among Hickory's business leaders present are: Grover Fowler, who headed the drive to secure funds for this Civic Center; Jack Inman, owner of Inman's Department Store, accompanied by Dorothy Kennedy, noted commercial artist, and Misses Betty Baker, Doris Barger, and Lorraine Brittain of the first floor women's wear department; Irene Brown and Ruby Brown, millinery specialists; Inez Burns, Inez Canipe, and Kathryn Correll, costume jewelry and novelties; and Katherine Horn and Thelma Hudson, the buyers for the firm; Drucilla Kanipe, Norma McDade, Clara Mae Lowman, and Mary Ann Lyerly of the Goldene Miller Store for Women's Wear; Oma Parsons, Annie Perkins, and Mildred Popè, switchboard operators of the Frances Price and Sue Reese Telephone Company; Jean Robinson and Worth Bolick, insurance agents; Doris Sigmon, Marguerite Smith, and Frances Veach, hostesses on P. C. A. airlines, with Pilots Darius Bollinger, Paul Brock, and Cecil Hallman; and Waitzell Austin and Garland Miller, investment counsellors and stock brokers.

"And what a coincidence. Another store has its staff attending en masse—the Hickory Super Market, owned by Garland Eaker and S. T. Eckard, with James Eller, manager, and Tommy Brown, head of the meat department. Salesmen are: Leroy Hilton, Homer McNeely, John Moss,

"There is Miss Ruth Lay, the woman chemist and inventor of a new synthetic silk. With her are the heads of her special staff of assistants: Gladys Burgin, Rebecca Chapman, and Wanda Carswell. I notice also beauticians Margaret Cody, Miriam Crump, Elizabeth Cutting, and Virginia Mae Danner of the Margaret Herman Beauty Shop, and several nurses from the Madeline Scott Woman's Hospital: Margie White, head dietitian, and Virginia White, Mary Helen Sigmon, and Helen Woods. Present also are some of the agents and specialists of the Betty Rose Yount Antique Shop: Virginia Smith, Elizabeth Sigmon, and Clara Phillips and Miss Mildred Teague, who conducts the well-known radio program of such value to culinary experts, 'The Mildred Teague Recipe Hour.'

"Other business leaders present are C. M. Starr, of Hudson and Starr, with his secretary, Winnie Sue Black; Charles Steele, Steele Furniture Company; Louise Fox, Madam's Dress Shoppe, and Charles Jones, of Jones Construction Company, Incorporated.

"Many of the Hickory High School Teachers are here. I'd like to recognize—Miss Betty Jane Balch, Latin; Peggy Brooks, home economics; Mildred Cannon, English; Margaret Cox, algebra; Ruth Jones, history; DeLacy Phifer, bookkeeping; Geneva Reinhardt, diversified occupations; Eleanor Whitener, French, and Zelma Sherrill, typing, and Mary Stephens, Glee Club.

"I especially desire to introduce Emery C. Miller, Jr., recently appointed President of Lenoir Rhyne College. With him are Roger Harold Terry, professor of mathematics, James M. Bisanar, professor of economics, Adolphus Yount, professor of history, and Nancy Shuford, professor of English.

"The professional world is well represented. Among others, I note: Lawyers Paul Griffin, Bob Laffon, and Emerson Sullivan; Dr. Richard H. Shuford, Jr., the world famous surgeon; and Dr. Jimmie Lee Rhyne, Lester Key, world-famous magician; Wallace Eckerd, scenic photographer; Miss Sarah Moss, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal; Miss Welda Bowman, woman columnist; Senator Nancy Raby (Democrat, North Carolina) and Representative Alfred Hill; from Hollywood, Producer Jacob Golden, Director Bill Shumate, and Actresses Greta Garth and Betty Harris; from New York and Hollywood, the famous woman clothing designer and photographer, recognized as leader in the world of fashion, Miss Margaret Farrington, with her most beautiful models, Mary Yount, Beatrice Goodson and Georgia Oswald; and from our national capital, Fate Shell, the noted lecturer, commentator, and drama critic.

"This is truly a great and noble assemblage, my friends. And every one claims Hickory as his home. No wonder Hickory is winning national acclaim. No wonder it has become North Carolina's largest and richest city.

"Briefly let me name some of the other prominent persons present: Miss Gladys Kingsolver, secretary, and Miss Peggy Hunt, radio actress. Corporal Bill Burcham, Staff Sergeant Hayden Fullbright, and I might add, 'Colonel' Darrell Yount, lend a military note to the proceedings. However, 'Colonel' Yount is one of the famous Kentucky colonels, owner of a racing stable, and in no wise connected with the army.

"And now it's nearly curtain time. But permit me to call to your attention the program to be held in the gymnasium of the Civic Center next week, under the leadership of athletic director Junius Poovey. A program featuring a group of famous stars from the world of sports has been arranged. I understand that it will include such noted stars as: James 'Bud' Lail, Bobby Cagle, and Donald Greene, All-American football players; Bob Hewat, heavyweight boxing title holder, and his manager, Franklin Murphy; Charles Johnson, swimming champion; and Charles Loflin, Joe Nance, Joe Whitener, and Clive Bigsby, basketball stars. Also featured will be Colleen Seaboch, champion woman golfer; Carleen Summey, Virginia Whitener, and Virginia Williamson, basketball stars; Miss Marie Whisnant, the noted equestrienne; Harold Rollins, famous aircraft test and racing pilot; Jackson Whisnant, Eslie Miller, Henry Lawrence, Bill Whitener, and Shelton Thomason of Duke's Rose Bowl football team of 1945."

Mr. Cline, stepping forward, takes his place on the conductor's platform, pauses for a moment, slowly raises his baton—the orchestra breaks forth into a tumult of weird but lovely music, rising, rising, blending into a mighty crescendo. Faint and far away, as if in a dream, we hear the voice of the Master of Ceremonies—"this the eighteenth day of May 1960, A. D."

Oh! Oh, pardon me, Dad. I must have been dreaming. And such a strange dream.—That's an interesting article in this evening's Record—"What will Hickory be like twenty years from now?" Maybe that's what inspired my dream; that, and listening to the Philharmonic on the radio. But that dream! I wonder—what if it should come true?

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Since it is customary for those who pass through this fleeting and uncertain life to leave behind them some token of remembrance and some document to insure them that their desires will be carried out after their departure, we, the Senior Class of 1942, realizing the nearing end of our bounteous years at Hickory High School, do hereby decree this to be our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

We solemnly bestow upon Headmaster Cottrell a student body of the future that is long-suffering, all-enduring, and cooperative for disciplinary and educational concentration.

ARTICLE II

To the faculty we leave our appreciation of their untiring efforts, and the interests they have taken in us during our high school career.

ARTICLE III

To the rest of the school we are willing to leave our beautiful building and individual talents and possessions, which are reserved in fond and cherished memories:

Mary Stephens wills her even temper to Sue Cordell. D. L. Rink wills his distinctive appearance to Harold Sherrill. Upon Paul Lackey, Charles Penland confers his complete understanding of others. Cathleen Campbell wishes Lorena Christian to have her dainty figure. Betty Jane Balch donates her ability to make good grades to Edith McCoy. To Harold Younce, Harold Terry wills his ability to "cut a rug."

To Sara Parlier, DeLacy Phifer leaves her pretty blonde hair. Jacqueline Bolch bequeaths her school-girl complexion to Rose Ellen Leonard. Clive Bigsby wills his all-round ability as a "ladies' man" and a basketball player to "Ace" Parker. Robert Smith leaves his title as school artist to anyone who can fill the requirements. Helen Crosby hereby bestows her dramatic ability upon June Hollar. Welda Bowman leaves her domestic talent for Martha Cansler. Donald Bradham bequeaths his ability to build air castles to J. M. Hudson. Robert Bridgeman leaves his sincerity to Julius Cook.

Annerl Bivens bequeaths her day dreams to Evelyn Moser. Dorothy Kennedy wills her place as sole female occupant of a certain gentleman's car to Jenny Parlier. Charles Sigmon leaves his drums to anyone who has enough rhythm to beat them. To Harold Younce, James Eller wills his serene air and silence. Mary Yount entrusts to Betty Jean Yeager her golden locks. To Doris Gallamore, Mary Helen Sigmon leaves her love of Hickory High School. Tommy Brown donates his quiet ways to J. C. Spencer. James Brannock leaves to Verne Hill his resemblance to "Lil' Abner." Frances Pope wills her pair of dollar dimples to Hazel Mims. Maenell Cline bequeaths her friendly disposition to Bobbie Munday.

Wanda Carswell leaves her studious temperament to Virginia Morgan. To Betty Hanna, Gladys Kingsolver leaves her love for the opposite sex. Eubert Bowman leaves his friendly nature to Billy Rowe. Bill Burcham wills his executive ability to Emmett Walls. Garland Eaker bequeaths his attraction to girls to Robert King. Shirley Hallman leaves her artistic ability to Betty Brown. To Doris McCall, Mary Bright leaves her charming and frequent smile. Ruby Brown confers her love for typing upon Frances Clegg. To Ruth Norris, Marjorie Fee wills her neatness.

Margie White bequeaths her colonial curls to Colleen Robbins. Joe Whitener leaves his long and lanky figure to Adrian Duncan. (Hope it fits). Doris Barger bestows upon Sophie Sbell her talent as a salesman. To Allen Bolick, Fate Sbell bequeaths his oratorical skill and strutting ability. To Margaret Miller, Lorraine Brittain leaves her ability to get up assignments in French on time.

Wallace Eckerd confers upon Ralph Bolick his gift of gab. Beatrice Goodson wills her charming personality to June Hollar. George Arndt bequeaths to Jimmie Deaton his eternal quietness. Betty Hand leaves her serenity to Betty Bumgarner. Henry Lawrence wills his artistic ability to Richard Greer. Helen Havnaer leaves her graciousness to Bobbie Lee Kendall. Emery Miller leaves his title of class genius to Bobby Bumgarner.

Drucilla Kanipe bestows her gaiety upon Charlotte Whisnant. Alfred Hill donates his all-round ability as a ladies' man and his athletic prowess to Ray Bolick. To anyone who can use it, Margaret Weaver gives her ability to translate Latin. Tom Callanan bestows upon Tommy Ennis his ability to consume tempting morsels in the lunch room. To Charlotte Whisnant, Virginia White bequeaths her "smiling eyes." Richard Shuford leaves his hypnotic powers over the gentler ones to Fred Hicks. Frances Veach wishes Mary Smith to have her exotic looks.

Shelton Thomason leaves his power to gain admiration from everyone, to anyone who can do so. Jean Robinson leaves her sweetness and gentleness to Marjorie Ragan. James Bisanar wills his knowledge of cars to Kenneth Flowers. Mildred Vestal leaves her lustrous hair to Estelle Witten. To Colleen Key, Norma McDade leaves her excellent interpretation of drama. R. A. Bost bequeaths his warm smile to Joe Hawn. Edward Ward leaves his musical ability to Jack Isenhour.

Ruth Lay bestows her modest manners upon Ethyl Poarche. Inez Burns wills her dignity to Juanita Cloer. To Jack Stepp, Garland Miller leaves his friendliness to everyone. Charles Lofin wills his many curls to Thomas Long. Elsie Ruth Hall bequeaths her baritone horn to anyone who can play it. To Virginia Adams, Barbara Flowers leaves her place in Glee Club. Jimmie Lee Rhyne confers upon "Ace" Parker his power to hold the affections of one girl for over a year. Margaret Cody wills her unassuming manner to Doris Zerden. Margaret Cox leaves her ability to talk at any time to Lucy Byers. Henry Shook leaves his stolid ways to Hugh Brittain.

Milton Westmoreland bequeaths his helpfulness to everyone to Paul Miller. WALTER Austin wishes Wade Reese to have his ability to get a good date at any time. Ruth Jones wills her "Pollyanna outlook" to Mildred Cooke. To Lucille Sherrill, Louise Hoke leaves her outstanding black hair. Paul Brock wills his bachelor eligibility to Mid Ramsour. Margaret Herman wills her flute-like voice to Virginia Davis. To Troy Danner, Cecil Hallman leaves his agility in handling a car. Elaine Dunitent bestows her beautifully managed hair upon Louise Rothrock. Kathleen Dellinger's seriousness in the classroom is given to Carolyn Henkel. To Ruby Campbell, Miriam Crump wills her interest in current events. Fred Huggins bequeaths his suaveness to Sherman Butler. Charles Steele wills his quiet and unassuming ways to Hal Bolick.

S. T. Eckard leaves his literary knowledge to Hobson Allen. To Eugene Annas, Robert Cagle leaves his dark, expressive eyes. Glenn Arney wills his Senior dignity to Jack Isenhour. Billy Dellinger confers his concentrative power to A. B. Tolbert. Kathryn Correll donates her quiet voice to Helen Miller. Louise Miller leaves her executive ability to Erma Lee Killian. To Betty Jo Newton, Inez Canipe wills her different personalities.

Louise Fox bequeaths her ability to keep quiet at the right time to Pearl Hartzoge.

Betty Anne Hickman wills her popularity with college boys to Jean Drumm. To Frances Little, Lucille Lockhart gives her affection for bright colors. Hayden Fullbright leaves his serious nature to Jack C. Setzer. Juanita Price wishes Mary Ann Houck to have her gift of graciousness. Jenoise Ellis leaves her exquisite appearance to Betty Huit. To Jane Nowell, Thelma Hudson wills her tactfulness. To Royale Prevette, Irene Brown gladly gives all surplus boy friends. To Letitia Hutton, Rebecca Chapman leaves her broadmindedness. Elizabeth Clay leaves her jolly giggle with Doris Lackey.

John Moss donates his contentment to Thomas Hoke. To Earl Goodman, Franklin Murphy entrusts his power to be teacher's pet. Peggy Brooks wills her bashfulness to Ruby Conner. To Ruth Bolick, Winnie Sue Black wills her business-like ways. Leroy Hilton bequeaths all his old combs and hair tonic to David Cohen. A. F. Sigmon wills his position as general manager of all athletics to Curtis Bolick.

To Eileen Sellner, Carleen Summey leaves her basketball ability. Oma Parsons passes down her ability to make good test grades to Nellie Jean Huffman. To Arthur Whitener, Worth Bolick wills his carefree manner. Kemp Honeycutt leaves his good looks and popularity in Hickory and Newton to P. G. Havnaer. Modean McNeely leaves her calm reserve to Mildred Cline. Dorothy Shell bestows upon Nell Propst her attraction for the males. C. M. Starr leaves to Gene Warlick his hypnotic powers over the gentler sex. Robert Cline bequeaths his charming ways with ladies to Lawrence Nanney. Mildred Cannon wills her vampish ways to Eugenia Tuttle. Doris Sigmon leaves her ability as a debater to Audrey Warren.

To Jack Stepp, Jake Golden wills his natural love for ladies and dances. To Lester Flowers, Charles Jones wills his friendly, warming smile. Madeline Scott leaves her hair curlers to Joyce Yount. Geneva Reinhardt donates her powder puff to Edith Whitener. Elmer Huffman donates his natural wit and popularity gained thereby to William Price. Joe Nance leaves his tall, stately figure to Tom Winkler. Frances Price passes down her ability to bluff the faculty to Mary Hallman. Annie Perkins bestows her love of good food to Mahel Clay. Boh Laffon donates his blondness and love for the fair ones to A. J. Wyatt. Barsh Kirby leaves his ability to help anyone in distress to T. A. Wilson. Mary Ledford wills her superb ability to "quote the author" to Marjorie Miller. Eleanor Whitener bequeaths her infinite amount of knowledge to Jane Fuller. Floyd Huffman bequeaths his high average on all subjects to Huit Keener.

Bob Hewat leaves his ability to "crack jokes" to Johnnie Evers. To Helen Whisnant, Peggy Hunt leaves all her "Cleopatric wiles." Bernice Kiziah leaves her collection of popular songs to Aileen Taylor. Donald Greene leaves his unquestionable popularity to Charles Cline.

Charles Johnson wills his charming disposition to "Rusty" Camp. Margaret Fearrington unhesitatingly leaves her leadership to Jane Fuller. Sue Reese leaves her trusty compact to Mary Alice Townsend. Richard Holland wills his happy-go-lucky nature to Joe Starnes. To whoever needs it, Elbert McCray bequeaths his good, studious habits. Frances Preslar leaves her conspicuous "cuteness" to Helen Aldmon. Mary Ann Lyerly wills her ability to obtain excuses to Sara K. Cline. To Hoyle Miller, Darius Bollinger wills his unobtrusiveness.

Jean Jones transfers her magnetic personality to "Doddy" Bowman. Cole Stanley wishes William Hix to have his aptitude for dramatics. Anna Sue Hammond relinquishes her timid ways to Christine Hefner. To Ralph Wilson, Jackson Whisnant wills his easy grace.

Mildred Teague and Katherine Horn will their love for each other to Frances Puette and Virginia Fritz. Harold Rollins wishes John Stratton to have his drawl.

Adolphus Yount wills his ability to use long, meaningful words to Edward Deitz. Virginia Williamson leaves her inquisitiveness to Doris Salvo. Boh Robinson leaves his sunny disposition to "Drip" Newton. Goldene Miller gives Faye Lou Burns her punctuality. Eslie Miller leaves his almost indispensable place on the football team to Joe Murphy. Doris Dellinger leaves her flirting ways to Vivian Ahernethy. Emerson Sullivan wills his dependability to Bobby Troutman.

Helen Troutman wills her golden voice to Nancy Miller. Margaret Bowman wishes that Catherine Crowell have a portion of her musical talent. Paul Griffin wills his silence in French to anyone who can be still. To J. W. Freed and Lillian Summers, Marie Whisnant and Lester Key will their constant friendship. Helen Woods wills her hashfulness around boys to Pearl Hartzoge.

Sarah Moss wills her versatility to Virginia Howard. Bill Shumate leaves his debonair manner to Boh Carswell. Georgia Oswalt wills her gracefulness to Marion Yount. Robert Frye wills his quietness to Glenn Preslar. Darrell Yount wills his irrelevant remarks to James Rozzelle. Mildred Pope leaves her warm smile to Frances McCulloh. Homer McNeely wishes Claude Shook to have his ability to keep up with assignments. Colleen Seahock and Virginia Smith leave to two fortunate Juniors their dignity and quiet manners. Nancy Shuford bequeaths her position in school to Ialeen Johnson. Upon Charles Hunsucker, Jack Inman confers his title of "reckless driver."

Bill Coffey leaves to Paul Buff his most serious nature, realizing that even that will not be very serious. Betty Rose Yount gives her cheerful grin to Bernice Cater. Dewey Owens wills Hoyle Baird his golden voice. Pinkie Wyant donates her wonderful sportsmanship to Helen Boyd. To Billy Paul Brady, John Stroupe affectionately gives his wit and humor, warning him not to use too much of it on Miss Dixon. The generosity and sweetness of Zelma Sherrill are left to Peggy Lofin. Keith Abce gladly gives his hashfulness to Colen Bedington. Bill Whitener wills his glib answers to William Smith.

Elizabeth Sigmon leaves her quiet, helpful ways to Virginia Bost. "Bud" Lail bequeaths his manly figure and love for athletics to Jimmie Jackson. To Juanita Kennedy, Marguerite Smith leaves her love for Lenoir. Glenn Miller relinquishes his ability to detract attention from lessons to Junior Putman.

Virginia Whitener leaves her blonde hair and fair complexion to Annie Berry. Junius Poovey and Richard Hoke will their fast friendship to Jerry Puet and Charles Ray Wilson. Doris Hoke donates her oratorical ability to Vivian Leonard. Elizabeth Cutting wills her love for the stronger sex to Lois Barger. Earl Duncan leaves his quiet brilliantness to John Vance Carver. To Sterling Brown, Grover Fowler entrusts his ability to make love. To Violet Phillips, Virginia Danner bequeaths her successful experiments in chemistry. Betty Baker confers upon Ruth Smith her ability to aid other Spanish pupils.

Edward Zimmerman leaves his expensive hair tonic to Clyde Pope. Greta Garth and Betty Harris will their popularity and faithful companionship to Juanita Hill and Phyllis Dunille. To Margaret Frans, Nancy Rahy wills her love of life and people. To Ernest Pope, Eulan Warren bequeaths his silence in class. Coyt Truesdale donates his ability to drive a car to Harold Cooke. Alan Thompson wishes Joe Roseman to have his ability to make flying tackles—provided Joe can get away with them. Gladys Burgin leaves to Dorothea Fulenwider her absent-mindedness. Upon Irene Brown and Lucy Byers, Clara Mae Lowman and Clara Phillips bestow every Shakespearian quotation that they learned this year.

My darling Winnie
 I've enjoyed having class with you for the past 2 years even if they have been hard old Latin! But we've had more fun in Glen Club haven't we?
 Don't forget you got a letter!
 Winnie Sue, I'll miss you next year.
 Don't forget "little me".

Love always
 June

Dear "Sinnie Woo,"

I have sincerely enjoyed being in glee club this year. You have been a real pal & swell friend.

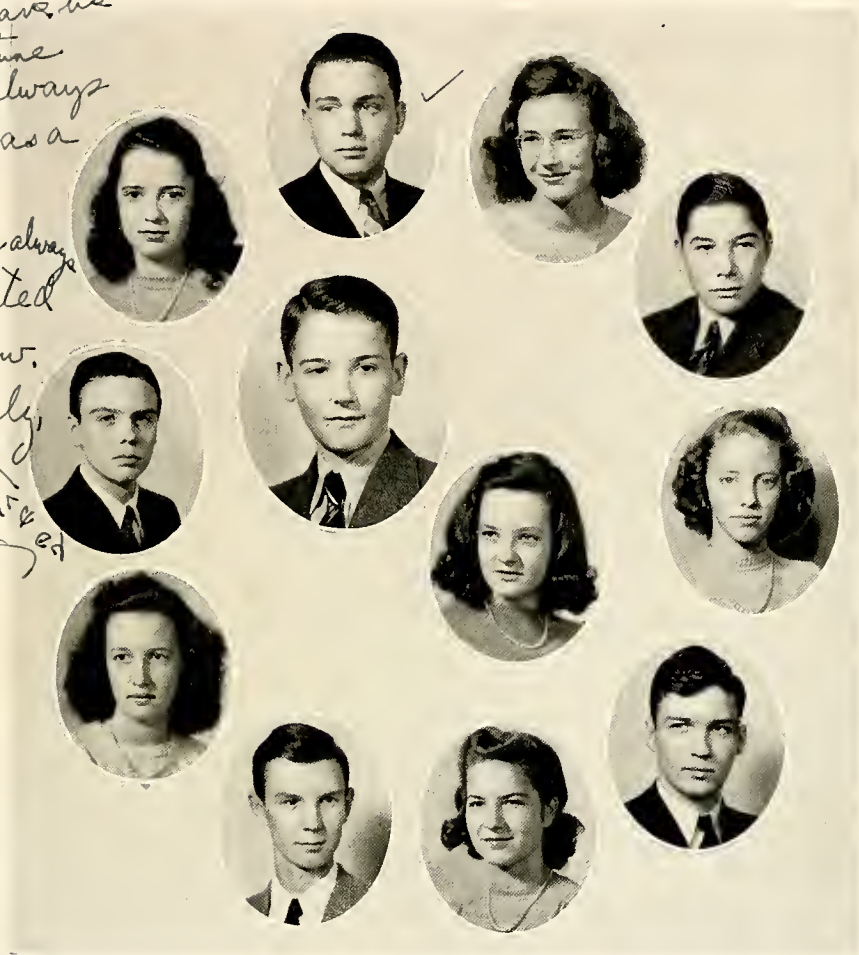

As you leave us to seek your fortune in the world always remember me as a friend.

May you always be as unaffected as you are now.

Sincerely,
J. W. Freed

RETAIL CLUB

The Retail Club serves both a social and an educational function. It gives students an opportunity to acquaint themselves with people and subjects important in the retailing field.

Planned trips to actual fields of distribution are made, so that the members can actually see other phases of distribution.

Its aim is to draw our members in closer contact with retailing people and jobs in our community.

FOOTBALL RESUME

SEPTEMBER 19: HICKORY vs. SHELBY (there).

The Hickory Red Tornadoes, in their season opener, determinedly battled a veteran-studded Shelby team before bowing finally, 12-0. Miller, Buff, Lawrence, and Hill led the attack in the line; Lail and Thomason in the backfield. The entire team showed unusual defensive skill.

SEPTEMBER 26: HICKORY vs. KINGS MOUNTAIN (there).

Playing brilliantly, Hickory's eleven scored twice—once in the third quarter when Eslic Miller recovered a fumble back of the goal line, and again in the fourth when high-reaching Paul Buff snagged Bud Lail's fifteen yard pass and tallied standing up. The extra point came from Parker's line buck. Hickory 14, Kings Mountain 0.

OCTOBER 3: HICKORY vs. BESSEMER CITY (here).

Although Bessemer City fought gamely to stem the Tornado assault, a one-sided score of 28-0 was piled up. Lail, power-driver, scored on a line buck and converted in the same manner. Eslie Miller raced forty yards across the goal line after receiving a pass from Thomason, who picked up Buff's blocked dropkick to gain the fourteenth point. Thomason heaved a long pass across the goal line to Buff for the third score, and Buff's "educated toe" dropkicked for 21. In the fourth period, Lail passed 20 yards to Buff for another six points and then converted. Substitutes were used freely and the entire squad played well. Hickory 28, Bessemer City 0.

OCTOBER 10: HICKORY vs. LINCOLNTON (there).

Packed with thrills and chills, fiercely contested, featured by dazzling passing attacks, the game ended in a 14-14 deadlock. Hickory completed 12 out of 23 aerials for 189 yards; and Lincolnton, six out of 15 for 119 yards. Tony Thomason, cool Tornado backfield ace, scored early in the first quarter on a 15 yard run, Lail adding the extra point. Lincolnton tied in the second, then forged ahead in the third. Midway in the fourth period Hickory marched 60 yards for the tying marker. The game ended, Hickory's ball on the two foot line. Lail, Thomason, Miller, Murphy, and Whitener were outstanding defensively.

OCTOBER 17: HICKORY vs. LENOIR (there).

In a nip and tuck affair featured by circus passes and catches, thrilling broken field running, unorthodox plays and pure unadulterated fighting spirit on the part of both teams, Hickory lost to Lenoir 37-19 in an exhibition which belied the one-sided score. The lead alternated until the fourth quarter when injuries took their toll and the Tornadoes weakened. Lail, Miller, Thompson, and Buff sparked Hickory's attack.

OCTOBER 24: HICKORY vs. CHERRYVILLE (there).

A bewildered Hickory team bowed before an inspired Cherryville eleven 21-7. Lail scored following a blocked punt by Ralph Wilson, center, and Paul Buff split the bars for the extra point. Feature of the contest was an enemy run of 79 yards.

OCTOBER 31: HICKORY vs. NEWTON (there).

Bounding back from defeat by Lenoir and Cherryville, the Red Tornadoes, spectacularly led by big-driving Bud Lail, crushed their age-old rivals Newton, 31-0, in a contest really a "push-over" after the first quarter. Lail bucked the line for Hickory's lone extra point, passed to Thompson and Eslie Miller for two touchdowns, and scored two more himself. Boyd Parker accounted for the other tally. The Tornadoes' hard-charging line held Newton to only two first downs. Miller's tackling, running, and catching ability matched Lail's fine backfield work, as the line opened hole after hole.

NOVEMBER 7: HICKORY vs. BARIUM SPRINGS (there).

Barium's undefeated team, plus Fletcher, all-Southern back, proved too much for Hickory. However, Lail's pass to Buff netted a touchdown—one of the two scores Barium permitted during the season. Thomason and Lail were outstanding in the backfield; Lawrence, at center, Hickory 6, Barium Springs, 38.

NOVEMBER 14: HICKORY vs. MORGANTON (here).

Homecoming Day, colorful with bands, sponsors, and a parade, brought no joy to the Red Tornadoes as the conference champions, Morganton, humiliated them with a white-washing, 46-0. Leonard and Brandon, ace enemy backs, provided the fireworks, ably assisted by Poteat. Penalties and the loss of Eslie Miller, blonde-bomber, in the second quarter, hastened the local's downfall. Lail's 20 yard run proved their most impressive play.

NOVEMBER 21: HICKORY vs. N. C. S. D. (here).

Scoring in the first, second and third quarters, the Red Tornadoes, superior in every department, defeated a game N. C. S. D. team, 19-7. Lail's passing and power drives featured the game, while Eslie Miller and Paul Buff, stellar ends, shone offensively and defensively. Thomason displayed smooth, clever tactics, and the entire line and substitutes were praiseworthy.

NOVEMBER 28: HICKORY vs. FOREST CITY (here).

Playing one of the smoothest games of the season, the Tornadoes spectacularly defeated Forest City, 32-7. Thompson tallied two on an end run and again on a line buck; Lail, after Thomason's recovery of a fumble, plunged the line for six points; Buff received Lail's 35 yard pass for another; Putman, substitute, went over for the final marker after Lail's 45 yard pass put Hickory in position to score. Heavy substitutions brought action to the entire squad.

Er, hello Winnie Sue,

In case you get bored easily, I'll

BASKETBALL RESUME

SHELBY—JANUARY 9

Hickory High basketball teams opened their Western conference schedule with a twin loss to Shelby, the girls being defeated 20-23, despite Moss's splendid scoring of 10 points; the boys, 21-31 with Bigsby and Lail starring.

NEWTON—JANUARY 13

In a thrillingly close contest with the Red Devoilettes of Newton, the Hickory girls' team, led by Raby and Moss, were barely nosed out 30-32. Lail led the Tornados in a 4-1 victory.

LINCOLN—JANUARY 16

The Red Tornados brilliantly shaded Lincoln 25-23. The Tornadettes lost 12-30. Havnaer, Bigsby, and Lail were outstanding for the boys; Moss and Samsley for the girls.

LENOIR—JANUARY 20

Both teams collected victories in Lenoir. Tornadettes, led by Raby, with 19 tallies, won 32-26. Lail, Bigsby, and Havnaer were the "big-guns" in the boys' 42-21 win.

MORGANTON—JANUARY 23

Hickory split a double-header with strong Morganton foes. Outclassed, the girls sextet lost 50-22. Lail's 14 points helped the Tornados win 26-11. Miller showed up well.

STUDENT-FACULTY—JANUARY 27

The annual Student-Faculty games proved close and exciting throughout with student teams nosing out the men 48-40 and the women 31-28. For the girls, Moss looked best; for the women teachers, Fritz was high scorer. Rullman and Scarborough led the men's team while Brady and Parker shone for the boys.

LINCOLN—JANUARY 30

Fighting gamely but completely outclassed, the Hickory girls lost 15-45, Raby scoring 7 points. The boys' team, led by Lail, eked out a 25-23 hotly-contested victory.

MARION—FEBRUARY 3

In games with Marion both Hickory teams slowed down to suffer defeats. The boys to the tune of 16-17; the girls, 14-20.

BESSEMER CITY—FEBRUARY 6

Hickory basketeers split an exciting doubleheader. Thrilling throughout, the boys' game ended 36-34 with the Tornados in the lead. A late Tornadette rally stopped short of victory 24-21. Bigsby and Brady starred for the boys; Raby, Moss, and Johnson for the girls.

LENOIR—FEBRUARY 10

Hickory teams copped a doubleheader from Lenoir, the girls winning 12-11; the boys, 38-20. Raby, with seven points, was high scorer for the Tornadettes. Lail collected fifteen markers to lead the male quintet.

MORGANTON—FEBRUARY 13

Honeycutt, with thirteen points, blazed the trail to victory for the Tornados over strong foe, 32-23, but Morganton girls swamped the local sextet 28-9.

MARION—FEBRUARY 17

The Tornadettes took the spotlight with a victory over Marion 30-18, while the male contingent was downed in an upset 30-35. Feminine stars were Farrington, Summey, Johnson, Frans, Raby, and Moss.

SHELBY—FEBRUARY 20

Winning by a nose in an overtime period 24-23, the Tornados were responsible for another split doubleheader—the girls losing 28-38 and Honeycutt, Havnaer, and Brady looked good for the boys. Moss, with 13 points, and Raby, with 9, starred for the girls' game.

NEWTON—FEBRUARY 27

The boys' game was nip and tuck with the Tornados defeating the Red Devils 21-17, while the girls lost to a superior foe 25-8.

BESSEMER CITY—MARCH 9

Despite a rally in the last quarter, the Red Tornadettes bowed to the Bessemer City girls 20-30. Led by Lail, Bigsby, and Honeycutt, the boys jumped to an early lead to coast along to victory 34-27.

Both girls' and boys' teams entered the Waldese Gold Medal Basketball Tournament. The girls were eliminated early in the tournament but the boys remained in play through the semi-finals, winning third place in the tournament, with a total of eleven games won, three lost. Lail won the "All Tournament Medal" and was also selected as one of the three outstanding players in the tournament.

Dearest Winnie Sue

you are one of the sweetest, friendliest girls I know. I bet if we ever got out together we would have a really "hot" time. Winnie, next time you go to party be sure you're fully dressed & nothing shows. Ahem. I'm sure you understand what I mean. And don't talk to too many boys who work on the record staff or they might put something in the paper that you wouldn't like or would you like it. and last but not least don't ask your mommy about everything. You know what I mean. Winnie, next time I come into Mc Cleans I'll come buy something from you, depending of course, on what you sell. I'm so glad you got your letter in The Club. Maybe I'll get one next year, I hope. I wish you weren't leaving this year so we could get some more study halls or some Latin together. We've had wonderful times in Latin but more fun in the Club, cutting up when we should be singing or at least trying to sing. I wish I could have had fun. I heard about you down there Winnie, but I won't repeat what I heard at least not in her presence. I bet there would have been a lot of fun there together. Don't you think I'll see you later. Love to you & success.

Dearest Suzy,

Isn't this something ??? Writing in your log here in August, not but about three months behind time. I blame it on the sugar rationing making us go to school such irregular hours and not having time to do anything but (study ???) then. Ha Ha!

Well, here we are you almost ready to go in ~~nurses training~~ ^{you reckon} (bless you) and me about to become ~~freshman~~ ^{freshman} all over again. ~~It seems like a waste of time - that is being a freshman twice.~~

Needless to say I miss you worse than the dickens because you are just about the sweetest, cutest, and ~~wittiest~~ ^{wittiest} gal I ever saw. You keep me ~~personnel~~ ^{personnel} laughing last year when Algebr ~~just~~ ^{just} represent ~~had me down~~.

I honestly ~~wish~~ ^{wish} I were going in training. ^{too} Wouldn't we have ~~time~~ ^{time} and we would certainly give the patients a fit.

Charlotte Engraving Co

With your sweet personality and never ending patience I am confident that you'll be one of the world's sweetest ^{and most successful} nurses.

Had, Suzy, please unless you're so deathly sick you can't walk stick to it. I mean to.

It was a great ~~loss~~ ^{loss} to me not being in grammar school with you except in the last half of the seventh grade and I certainly enjoyed it.

May the best of everything be your ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~anything~~ ^{anything}. All my love, Lane. We all love you.

Remember how I love it, not the state

Binnie
Dearest Winnie
Oh! Golly
it's been so long knowing you all these years. Remember all those good times. You could never forget them. You instance our trip to Charleston and all that maden steps and of course our good times in grammar school. playing zarilla and all that stuff.
Remember the time I gave Richard that "Pepsi Cola" hair tonic? And the was a killer wasn't it? And the nights we played at night? Oh!
they were wonderful days.
except for Winnie. I can't give you any advice are you all overcome with these bumps along the road of life. With that sunny smile of yours you can't help but write me through even the toughest write me to one of my sweetest friends who smiles and I love her

Beggy

P. S. Hope that you will go far in life with the ability to do better work as a future nurse - — — Beggy.

Dearest Sue,

We have traveled along road. We have had many ups and downs on these days of our school career.

Here's hoping that when we get out of this place that we will always have our friendships.

Sue, when you get to be a nurse, I certainly hope that you will not talk the patience to death, as you have about talked the daylight out of me.

I hope that you remember all of the time that you and I have talked in Biology about Tom ^(misprint) and Bob — from Cherryville that you were so crazy about. Remember! I hope that you and them have a nice time together this summer.

Well, I could have said, do you remember all of the swell times that we have had in the past but you know all about them so why say anymore about them now.

Here's wishing to a friendly, sweet and cute girl the best of everything and that the future may hold for you in the future.

Always to you,

Beggy

Louis

Frances
May 12, 1942

Dear Sue,

I tell you that our Senior High year together at Hickory has been the most pleasant one yet. It seems to me as if I must keep them with us that no matter how much we love someone, and so, after a few more weeks I always, I will be giving you up. You have been such a swell friend that our departure is going to be sad to me. I will never be able to forget the good times we had in the G. A.'s and the G. S. We too, like grand times at St. Hi. We had disagreements plus our everyone else, have not lasted that as you but they have not lasted long.

Leave school Sue. I hope and start you traveling the road of life that you will answer every opportunity you knock and when best to live and serve skin as you are best to live and your traits are sure to get you far so may you use them to the best ad. vantage possible. And remember that no matter how dumb the way may seem that "life can be beautiful" and that no matter how dumb the way may seem that "life can help to make it so."

Love,
Frances

My dear Lucie,

It seems that all these wonderful and happy years ^{of school} must come to a close, but that doesn't mean that our friendships can't close too. In fact that is the time that we should all stick together because that is when I say, this is the time we are getting our real start in the world and therefore we certainly need each other's support.

Really, I don't know what I would have done if I didn't have you around me to cheer me up. Why, it seems that Tomlinson never looks you, but I just can't say that for myself. I suppose you have helped me with so many of mine that you just didn't have time for your own! At any rate I have deeply appreciated all of your help to me.

Yes, do you remember our afternoon at the drug store? And don't you have that to do with you that someone who seemed to enjoy putting us. Well, I suppose we both gave him an understanding, didn't we? Why, I suppose your mother is really glad that you all have moved - just for my mother.

And that is or should I say was my coming home with you almost every afternoon! At any rate, I enjoyed my talks with her and you so much. Why my afternoon didn't seem complete without talking to her. They still don't seem complete, but I am just too lazy to walk all the way up you know home after school. I'll tell you what. Some afternoon I'll take time out and come up to your house just to talk to your mother. Will that be all right?

Lucie, keep up the fine spirit of cooperation and that wonderful personality of yours and you'll really go far. There is love to a small girl and me I returned very much. Helen (mother)

Barbara
My darling Sue,
My darling Sue,

Here it is the middle of August and I'm just writing in your log. I ought to be ashamed. But now I have so much more to say. So many wonderful things have happened this summer. Soon you will be leaving to go into nurse's training. I'm going to miss you so much. I'm happy for you, but I do wish you were going back to High School again this year. We could have so very much fun another year together. You're going your way in life and I'm going mine, let's hope and pray that our ways don't go to awfully far apart. As close as we have been this passed year, surely they will meet somewhere in the near future.

How will I ever forget all the wonderful times
we have had together. Long ago in grammar school.
(It doesn't seem so long, does it?) At your house across the street from Pinkie, when we used to play with our dolls. I would have given almost anything to have gotten to go to Green Park, my seventh year.

as I was looking forward ^{to} all Then this last year in High has been wonderful. I can't ever for-Must of all Greenboro!!! It has been. All the things that happened on the way back, our night walk with the lyctids. I was so pretty if she did think of it. I mean I'll be in town.

Only one thing would have made my trip to Greenboro perfect. I think you know what. But I'm not fussing, because this summer I've had him, and it's been wonderful, sometimes
I think I don't deserve all of this happiness.
I feel guilty when there are so many unhappy people
